UNOPPOSED SECOND MOTION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME

The City of Jacksonville and Duval County Supervisor of Elections Mike Hogan move under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 26 and 27, and Eleventh Circuit Local Rules 26-1 and 27-1, for an extension of time of thirty days to file their initial brief. As it currently stands, their initial brief is due on March 8, 2023. This is the City and Supervisor Hogan's second request for an extension of time, the first being granted by phone on January 24, 2023.

This second extension is justified due to circumstances unforeseen at the time the City and Supervisor Hogan made their first request for an extension. Specifically, at present, members of the Jacksonville City Council are drafting for debate and consideration legislation related to matters in this case. That legislation may significantly alter some of the controversies between the parties. In addition, local and state transparency requirements limit the Council's ability to debate among themselves and seek legal advice. See generally § 5.02, Jacksonville Charter; §§ 18 et. Seq., 15.101, 15.101 et seq., 129.102, Jacksonville Ord. Code; <https://www.coj.net/city-council>. The requested extension would thus allow for all parties to consider (and shape) the potential legislative changes, and to better focus their arguments before this Court. The extension would also provide counsel for the Council added time to advise members.

* * *

The City and Supervisor Hogan thus ask this Court to grant their motion, making the initial brief due April 7, 2023. Notably, Plaintiffs do not oppose the extension.
